Thank you to everyone who joined us at our last match of the year at Tusco.
Our Charity Match was once again a huge success.
Our very generous Cowboys/Cowgirls raised $2,300 for our Charity!
Wow!!
So awesome to be around these great people.

Congrats to Wright Wiley our Top Overall/Men's Shooter, Cayenne Kay our Top Ladies/Ladies Josey Wales Shooter, and Life-R our Top Josey Wales Shooter!

Thank you for another great year at Tusco!
See you in 2022.

Buckaroo Bubba

Thanksgiving Day

T-30.

The poem below appeared in the El Paso Herald on December 4, 1911.
It is unattributed to a West Texas Cowpuncher.

Beautiful the sunshine pours over western plains,
And into little homes along the rugged mountain chains;
Thanks for this refulgent light in humble cottage cast,
That alleviates the burdens of a melancholy past.

My having to sorrow without one word,
And working in the stampede of the herd,
Makes me thankful for the peace and the rest
That come on Thanksgiving Day in the west.

Thankful for the cattle's large, appealing eyes,
And for my little home on the mountain's gorgeous rise;
Thankful for the union of pleasure and sorrow,
And for the sunshine that will come on the morrow.

Thankful for the smile of little baby Ann,
Whose happy mother died with the year begin;
Thankful for the echoes of her voice in the breeze,
Where baby Ann listens and plays among the trees.

Thankful for the incentive to learn and advance,
And for those who have journeyed in this western expanse,
And for the privilege to be free and simple-
For my baby's coiling curls and her glowing dimple.

This recipe is a great addition to a Cowboy Thanksgiving Dinner

Mama's Cornbread Dressing by Cowboy Kent Rollins

If I remember one thing that was on Mama's Thanksgiving table without fail, it was her cornbread dressing. And, it's typically a staple on most holiday tables. When Mama and I would start preparing for the holiday meal, we'd look for every short cut and time saver we could, because when the holidays roll around things are hectic.

Serves 6-8

8 ounces boneless skinless chicken breast
8 ounces turkey breast
6 tablespoons butter
1 medium yellow onion chopped
4 stalks celery chopped
1 6-ounce box Stove Top stuffing mix
1 to 1 ½ cups crumbled cornbread
1 32-ounce box chicken broth
1 teaspoon sage
1 teaspoon poultry seasoning
2-10.5 ounce cans cream of chicken soup

Preheat the oven to 350 degrees F.

Butter a 14-inch Dutch oven or 9 x 13-inch casserole dish.

In a medium saucepan, add the turkey and chicken.

Cover with water and bring to a boil over medium-high heat for about 15 minutes or until fork tender.

Set aside to cool then shred the chicken and chop the turkey.

In a large cast iron skillet, melt the butter over medium heat then stir in the onion and celery. Cook for about 5 minutes or until tender, stirring occasionally.

In a large mixing bowl, mix together the onion, celery, stuffing mix, crumbled cornbread, chicken broth, sage and poultry seasoning.

Stir in the turkey and chicken, and let it set a couple minutes to absorb the liquid.

If there is excess liquid pooling along the edges add up to 1/2 cup more crumbled cornbread.

Spoon the dressing mixture in the Dutch oven or casserole dish.

Cover and place in the icebox overnight or until ready to cook.

Take the dish out of the icebox about 30 minutes before baking.

Evenly spread the cream of chicken soup over the top.

Bake for 45 to 50 minutes or until the top is golden brown and the mixture sets up and is sponge-like.

Let rest 10 minutes before serving.

A Cowboy's Prayer of Thanks

I'm not too good at prayin', Lord and You may not know me very well.
For I haven't been inside a church,
in quite a long, long spell.
But You may still have seen me, Lord,
here on this dusty trail,
herdin' after cattle
through the snow and rain and hail.

And as I ride I do give thanks for the miracles I see ~ the clear blue sky, the buttercups,
the buzzing little bee.
I give thanks for the soft green grass that feeds the cattle that we tend;
it also gives my bed some comfort
when the day is at an end.
With each hill and valley,
along each dusty mile,
I find some beauty You created and I cannot help but smile.
I'm far from being a preacher, Lord,
but I'll offer my humble prayer that love and kindness will be my guide
as I'm roamin' here and there.
I pray that I might live my life
in a way that brings You joy.
But if I slip every now and then, take pity on this poor cowboy.

So, you made Cowboy Cornbread Stuffing for Thanksgiving.....
What to do with Leftovers?

Leftover Dressing Corn Dogs
AKA Corndogs – Cowboy Style
by Cowboy Kent Rollins

Serves 4

2 cups leftover dressing chilled
2 eggs whisked
½ cup Half and Half
1 cup cornmeal divided
½ cup all-purpose flour for sprinkling
4 hot dogs, smoked sausage or other sausage
Fry oil peanut, canola, etc.

Directions:

In a bowl, combine the dressing, eggs and half and half and stir well.

Sprinkle in a ¼ cup of the cornmeal and stir well.

You'll use the remaining corneal for sprinkling your surface.

Lay a sheet of plastic wrap on the counter and lightly sprinkle with some flour and then a light layer of cornmeal.

Form the dressing mixture into 4, 2-inch balls and roll out thinly.

Place 1 sausage or hot dog in the center of the dressing and gently roll up with the plastic wrap to evenly coat the hot dog/sausage.

Remove any excess and press firmly.

Repeat with the remaining dressing and hot dogs.

Fill a Dutch oven, deep fryer or sauce pan about 2-inches deep with the fry oil.

Preheat the oil to 350 degrees F. and fry until a deep golden brown.

Place on a paper towel or wire rack. Serve warm.

For the Dipping sauce:

Whisk together 2 tablespoons of spicy mustard with 3 tablespoons red plum jam or cranberry jelly/sauce. Serve with the corn dogs.

NEWS & NOTES

Six Stages

We shoot six stages at Tusco. A few people have told us that they drive a good distance to shoot at Tusco and would like to shoot as much as possible.

Obviously we only have room for five shooting bays. So what we do is shoot the first stage you start on twice. Consider it a warm up stage. Only five stages will be scored. You can take your best time on your first stage. If you don't want to shoot it twice you do not have to. This would provide more shooting for our shooters.

New SASS Magazine

With the new release of the SASS Quarterly Cowboy Chronicle, I once again would like to start collecting any unwanted issues of the magazine. We will use these for our promotional events, like our Tusco Long Riders' Day at Kames Sports. Please either black out or cut off your name and address or I will do it before they are passed out. Thank you!

Facebook Page

When you make a post about Tusco or share pictures on Facebook, include #TuscoLongRiders. Let everyone see what we are all about.

New Shooters Shoot for Free at Tusco

The Tusco Long Riders will be offering FREE SHOOTS to ALL FIRST TIME SHOOTERS AT TUSCO. This is ONLY for a shooter's first ever shoot at Tusco. (*this is only for monthly matches, excluding High Noon 3-day Shoot in October, and the Charity Shoot in November.)

Cowboy Swap Meet at Monthly Shoots

As a reminder, feel free to bring your old Cowboy Gear, Guns and Equipment to sell at our monthly shoots. It's a good opportunity to sell some of your unwanted stuff to your fellow shooters. Your items are your responsibility.

Pre-Paid Shoots

Looking for that perfect Gift for your Cowboy Friends and Family? How about a Pre-paid Shoot to a Tusco Monthly Match. They cost $10.00 each at a shoot or they can be mailed for $10.50. Contact Buckaroo Bubba at pittfandwr@aol.com or 330-348-5637 if you would like to purchase them.

Help Wanted at Tusco

If you are available to help set up target stands/props before our shoots it would be greatly appreciated.
